

Valhalla Lodge

Bed & Breakfast

*B*ella Hodge has charmed visitors to Gunner's Cove since 1986 with her stories of the local people and places. As host of the delightful Valhalla Lodge, she's also impressed them with comfort and service at this well-appointed Bed and Breakfast.

Nestled atop a hill, Valhalla Lodge offers a sweeping view of the Atlantic Ocean, an ocean channel renowned for its icebergs and whales.

Here in this quiet natural setting you're just eight kilometres south of the ancient Viking settlement at L'Anse aux Meadows National Historic Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

From the front door of Valhalla Lodge breathe the fresh salt air. A leisurely trail sweeps down to the waterfront. Another trail climbs a nearby berry hill for a breathtaking view of the area.

Complimentary breakfast includes Jean's fresh-baked bread and warm muffins... thick pancakes... local berry sauces and jams... free-range eggs from Gunner's Cove... fresh orange juice... European coffees... a wide variety of teas. Tastefully appointed guestrooms You'll feel at home in these beautiful rooms

- Scandinavian pine furniture • Locally-made cozy quilts
- Hardwood floors • Private bath in each room • Jacuzzi in one room
- E-mail services • Satellite television • Room service and wake-up calls

For your comfort and convenience

To help make your stay as rewarding as it can be we have a library well stocked with literature and videos on Newfoundland and the Vikings, public sauna facilities, a fireplace in the sitting room as well as antique furniture and fine paintings throughout the lodge. Visit the Gaia Art Gallery and Norseman Restaurant nearby.

Getting here is easy

You'll find Valhalla Lodge Bed and Breakfast on the right side of the main highway, Route 436, as you enter Gunner's Cove.

Visa, Diners Club, and MasterCard accepted.

“Valhalla Lodge and The Norseman Restaurant was the highlight of our trip!”
